THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF
WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

UNCLASSIFIED 13 March 1962

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

Subject: Justification for US Military Intervention in Cuba (TS)

1. The Joint Chiefs of Staff have considered the attached Memorandum for the Chief of Operations, Cuba Project, which responds to a request of that office for brief but precise description of pretexts which would provide justification for US military intervention in Cuba.

2. The Joint Chiefs of Staff recommend that the proposed memorandum be forwarded as a preliminary submission suitable for planning purposes. It is assumed that there will be similar submissions from other agencies and that these inputs will be used as a basis for developing a time-phased plan. Individual projects can then be considered on a case-by-case basis.

3. Further, it is assumed that a single agency will be given the primary responsibility for developing military and para-military aspects of the basic plan. It is recommended that this responsibility for both overt and covert military operations be assigned the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

L'opération Northwoods, conçue en 1962 par l'état-major interarmées, impliquait des provocations sous fausse bannière.

Ce plan comprenait

- l'explosion du navire américain à Guantanamo - le scénario reprenait l'incident de 1898, à la suite duquel les États-Unis avaient entamé une guerre avec l'Espagne,
- des attaques terroristes à Miami et dans d'autres villes de Floride - les services secrets devaient poser des bombes dans des lieux publics et attaquer des réfugiés cubains,
- l'abattage d'un avion civil - avec la couverture médiatique qui s'ensuivit et les accusations portées contre Cuba,
- l'attaque d'une base militaire américaine près de Cuba.

Comme l'indique la publication, l'objectif de toutes ces actions était de convaincre les Américains de la nécessité d'envahir Cuba.

Le plan a été rejeté par le président John Kennedy.
